The editors of the Gazette propose the laws of the U. S. States, will much oblige the board of governors, by giving the following directions.

Fair Laws for 1820.

Evil time has once more arrived in the eventful period of privileges. Leap year has returned—joy beams from evening—smiles dance in quick succession.

yesterday is so to day, & so to m row. Far different reality is our city progress, numerous the emigrants, & various their habits and modes of living; consequently, the which governed the communications in the Leap Yr of has impiously required reand amendment for 1820.

I am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination vows; endeavor to frame and fashion their lives according to his doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the Rock of Ages, and inversely obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to "dwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and strife into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity to animadverst upon such conduct, with un-spared severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or censure, or to discipline or worship.
